Body Of Unknown Woman Is Found In River In City

Discovery Made Shortly Before Noon In Shenango River Near Can Works

WOMAN APPARENTLY ABOUT 60 YEARS OLD

Coroner Believes She Had Not Been In River Long—Seek Identification

(BULLETIN 2 P.M.)

Identification of the woman found in the Shenango river shortly before noon, was established this afternoon, as Mrs. Samuel Barnes, of East North street, Mrs. Lela Robinson, of Highland avenue, owner of the North street apartment building where Mrs. Barnes resided, made the identification, according to word from officials.

Caught on a large rock in the Shenango River on the east bank directly across from the American Can Company, the body of an unidentified woman was found drowned today, about 10:45 o'clock by Mike Pastirak, of 121 Balph Avenue.

The body is that of a woman apparently about 60 years of age. The height is about five feet three and weight appears to be no more than 125. The woman was fully clothed, had on a black dress with gold beading at the neck and waist. Around her neck was tied a colored handkerchief of red, white and black, and on her feet were high galoshes fairly new. Her hair is iron gray. Her nose are light tan or beige. She wore an imitation Caracul coat of a gray color.

Called Sheriff.

Mr. Pastirak was walking along the railroad tracks below the West Pittsburgh road when he noticed the

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Today is the first day that new license tags may be legally displayed on automobiles in Pennsylvania. The 1940 licenses will expire on March 31.

Three beautiful big robins were seen on the lawn of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gilmore at Hillside this week. Pa Newc is told. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gilmore always put out feed for the birds.

On the lawn of the Third U. P. church Friday, the sunshine having dispensed with the layer of snow, a hungry squirrel was busy searching for the nuts it had hidden. Presently it was out and near the base of a low pine, and scampered off to enjoy its find sitting within the crotch of a nearby tree.

With springlike sunny weather Friday afternoon, funsters could be seen working on the roof of a house on Crawford avenue. These craftsmen doubtless are anxious for their season of outside work to commence, as much wintry and unfavorable weather has kept them off the job.

With spring in the offing, Owen Fox could be seen Friday afternoon spread a thin layer of patent fertilizer.

Deadline Here For Tax Reports

Today Is Final Day To File Income Tax Reports—Huge Record

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, March 15.—Internal revenue offices throughout the country were being deluged with a last-minute rush of an estimated 16,000,000 individual income tax returns today as congressional leaders studied a plan for payment of future income taxes in advance.

With the deadline for filing returns at midnight, treasury experts estimated that $1,000,000,000, perhaps more, will flow into the government's cash register within the next few days. A total of between $3,000,000,000 and $3,500,000,000 was expected during the next nine months.

Because of lower exemptions, the number of persons filing tax returns on 1940 earnings will more than double those of a year ago when 7,800,000 returns were received. Millions of persons who have never paid an income tax before will send their checks or money orders to the government this year, and millions more, who never had to file a return before, will this year, although they may not have to pay a tax.

Must Reclassify Students Given Deferred Ratings

Changes Must Be Made Before July 1 Is Order From Governor

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, March 15.—Students who have received a deferred rating under the selective service act must be reclassified before July 1, Gov. Arthur H. James today notified local draft boards.

"The deferment of students provided by the act expires July 1, 1941 and it will therefore be necessary for local boards to reclassify all students now in class I-E or I-E prior to July 1," stated the governor. Students or other registrants undergoing instruction deemed essential to the national health, safety or interest may be placed in class II-A by the local board, it was explained. Such deferment may not exceed six months, but may be renewed from time to time if the local board finds that such continuance is justified, the governor added.

President Prepares Broadcast For World On U. S. Aid Program

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 15.—While President Roosevelt put finishing touches on his worldwide radio broadcast tonight, the government today moved to meet pressing British war needs by allocating up to $1,500,000,000 worth of American defense materials on hand and on order, to England.

Mr. Roosevelt was scheduled to speak on the lease-lend program over the three major radio hook-ups at 9:30 p. m. E. S. T. His address will be broadcast by short-wave radio in six languages. The speech was expected to have a dual theme. First, it was believed he will tell the people of this nation that they must be ready to make sacrifices in the defense program. Further, he was expected to stress the pledge of the United States to help nations resisting the Axis powers.

Fire Damages East Side Home

Loss Of $1,500 Sustained In Fire Which Threatens Neighborhood Friday Night

FIREMEN KEEP LOSS AT MINIMUM

City firemen did a good job in checking what looked like a general conflagration Friday night, when the home occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Runkle, of 110 North Walnut street, was found ablaze at 9:20 o'clock. A loss of $1,500 on the home and contents was suffered, no insurance being carried on the furniture, Mr. Runkle stated.

Runkle had just been to the cellar a short time previous to discovery of the fire to put coal in the furnace, and there was no sign of fire at that time. Ten minutes afterwards, he said he smelled smoke, and on going to the kitchen, found fire coming out around the hot air duct. He threw a pan of water on the blaze, and then opened the cellar door, when he was driven out by a burst of flame and smoke.

Burns Out Stairway.

The fire burned out the stairway from the cellar and up to the second floor, and spread between the walls to the attic but was checked before it burst through the roof.

Shortly after firemen arrived at the scene, it was sensed that a bad fire was in progress, and as the adjoining homes were close to the blazing structure, a second alarm was turned in from Box 32, calling additional companies to the scene, and soon bringing the fire under control.

Firemen were served with hot coffee while fighting the blaze by Joe Knowles, who resides in the neighborhood.

Criticism Of President's Plan For Strike Board

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, March 15.—President Roosevelt's plan to organize a "super" labor mediation board today drew the criticism of both congressmen and CIO officials, concurrent with predictions by some lawmakers that legislation still would be needed to curb strikes.

CIO President Philip Murray branded the White House proposal for an independent labor board as "wholly unrealistic," and urged a substitute his suggestion to set up "administrative councils" in major defense industries to handle production and labor problems.

On the other hand, the A. F. of L. through its president, William Green, approved of the President's plan for an 11-man mediation board. But Murray objected. He described his "council" plan as a "cure-all" for labor ills. At the same time, he warned that any proposal for a compulsory "cooling off" period before strikes could be called would operate to the detriment of labor without aiding the defense program.

CITES BENEFIT TO DEFENSE PROGRAM

Government May Give Favorable Consideration To Plea Of Panama

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Panama has appealed to the United States government to finance the construction of new highways throughout the canal zone defense program, it was learned today.

The appeal has been made to the state department by Panamanian Ambassador Don Carlos N. Brin in view of Panama's recent action in granting the United States additional bases for the defense of the Panama Canal, there is reason to believe this government will give favorable consideration to the appeal.

Important To U. S.
In addition to the desire to develop the republic and give increased employment to its people, the Panamanian government feels that construction of modern highways in the country will be of the utmost importance to the United States in its defense plans for the Canal Zone.

Yugoslavia And Berlin Negotiations Strike New Snag

Nazi Efforts To Achieve Binding Agreement Have Been Delayed

(International News Service) BELGRADE, March 15.—German efforts to achieve a binding agreement with Yugoslavia appeared to have hit a new snag today, although Belgrade diplomatic quarters insisted that the Reich and Yugoslavian governments are in full accord.

Nevertheless, the date for the projected visit of Yugoslavian Premier Dragisa Cvetovic and Foreign Minister Alexander Cincar-Markovic to Germany, already twice postponed, still remained uncertain. Cvetovic's reported ill health was mentioned as the ostensible reason.

EDITOR'S NOTE: A Reuters (British) dispatch from Vichy quoted a French news agency dispatch from Budapest as saying British consulates in Hungary are advising British nationals to leave that country.

In addition, the official British radio in a broadcast picked up by CBS in New York, said Yugoslavian newspapers published an article by Vice Premier Vladimir Matcehek in which he stated: "We ask for nothing that does not go along to us, and we will give away nothing that is ours."

In view of the delay it appeared some details of the proposed German-Yugoslavian understanding have not yet been settled.

Russo-Japanese Pact Of Non-Aggression Is Prediction From Rome

By PERCY WINNER

ROME, March 15.—A Russo-Japanese non-aggression pact and vastly increased ties between the Soviet Union and the Axis powers were predicted by informed Italian quarters today.

They said that negotiations now under way or soon to be launched will produce not only a treaty of non-aggression between Tokyo and Moscow but a form of Soviet co-operation with the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo military alliance "short of adhesion."

In addition, these same quarters

Rotarians Are Booming McFate For District Post

New Castle Rotarians are booming one of their most faithful and energetic members, J. Lee McFate, for the governorship of District 175 of Rotary International.

McFate is relinquishing active business responsibilities, and his Rotary friends hope to elevate him to the top district office when District 175 meets for its annual conference in Kane, May 8 and 9.

The boom, it was learned today, has already developed into a popular district-wide roar—and so far as New Castle Rotary knows there are no other candidates.

M. B. McDowell, of Bradford, is the present governor of the district, which embraces more than 30 clubs throughout the northwestern and central western sections of Pennsylvania.

McFate, who for many years has operated a wholesale candy business here, became a member of New Castle Rotary shortly after the club was founded. He has served as its president and through extension work, has "fathered" the New Wilmington and Bessmer Rotary clubs. Three times he served as general chairman of district conventions.

To understand his continuing devotion to Rotary one has only to turn to his attendance record which shows he has been present for more than 1,000 consecutive meetings. That takes you back a good many years when you figure Rotary has 48 meetings annually.

McFate recently disposed of his candy business interests. Within a few days he will take a brief Florida sojourn.

President Of Turkey Sends Hitler Message

(International News Service) BERLIN, March 15.—President Ismet Inonu of Turkey has dispatched a personal message to Chancellor Hitler in reply to Hitler's recent note to Inonu. DNB said today in a dispatch from Sofia.

According to high Bulgarian political quarters, a Turkish foreign office official named Vegin arrived in Sofia last night, supposedly en route to Berlin with the message. (In his note to President Inonu, it was understood in Ankara. Hitler sought to woo Turkey away from her alliance with Britain with a German offer to guarantee Turkey's security and, it was said, give Turkey a slice of Syria.)

SCOTLAND AGAIN TARGET OF NAZIS

British Raiders Renew Bombing Of Western Germany Industrial Centers

By JAMES E. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, March 15.—The new outburst of Anglo-German total warfare raged without abatement last night and early today as Nazi raiders renewed attacks on Glasgow and other Scottish and English sectors while R. A. F. planes hammered western Germany.

An official air ministry announcement today said R. A. F. units heavily attacked industrial units in western Germany during the night.

German Cities Bombed.

The German cities of Dusseldorf and Gelsenkirchen were the main targets bombed by the R. A. F. the air ministry said.

Oil tanks at the German-held Dutch port of Rotterdam were bombed, it was announced.

The communiqué added that of the large force of bombers engaged in the attacks only one was missing.

According to the air ministry a number of persons were killed and many were injured when German bombs destroyed a block of flats in the River Clyde (Glasgow) district. The communiqué said four German raiders were shot down during the night.

Dive-Bombing Attacks.

One group of raiders made three dive-bombing attacks on Thames Estuary towns killing four persons.

Advise British Leave Hungary

(International News Service) LONDON, March 15.—British nationals are being advised to leave Hungary at once, authoritative London quarters revealed today.

They said this move in no way indicates that Britain is breaking off diplomatic relations with Hungary, but is merely a precautionary maneuver in view of the unstable situation in the Balkans.

On the other hand, some London circles regarded evacuation of Britons from Hungary as an indirect hint to the Budapest government, since Hungary already is regarded in London as a partner of the Axis powers.

Nevertheless, it was recognized that Britons in central Europe must begin to leave immediately or run the risk of being trapped there by lack of transportation facilities for the duration of the war.

And will you write a bit of verse that goes with players on the court, and so I said okay my friend, you see I'm that kind of a sport. Now I can think of little rhyme that goes with hoops or dribble shots, or guards or enters on the court who rave and wheel and play in spots. But here's the verse for what it is, the poet's in and let me state this has to pass for what he wants, the weather's up to forty eight.

Guilty Verdict In Waynesburg Case

Convict Man In Wife Plot

Jury Says Headley Guilty Of
Plotting To Kill His Wife
Last August

NEW TRIAL WILL BE SOUGHT IN CASE

(International News Service)
WAYNESBURG, Pa., March 15—Robert B. Headley, 49-year-old Pine Bank gas field worker, awaited action on a new trial motion today following his conviction of plotting to kill his wife in a faked holdup last August.

A jury of four men and eight women weighed the sensational testimony one hour and 45 minutes last night before returning a verdict of guilty against Headley.

Counsel for the man whose wife recovered from the "holdup" bullet wounds but later committed suicide, immediately filed a motion for a new trial, reasons for which must be filed in four days.

Unshaken By Verdict
Headley was unshaken by the verdict. On the witness stand, he had admitted intimate relationship with Mrs. Otis Cumberlege, his reputed sweetheart, but insisted he had never suggested his wife's murder, which his 36-year-old alleged paramour testified he had.

The defendant faces a maximum sentence of seven years on each of two counts in the indictment.

"Cheese slice" can be called by that name, ruled a London judge recently, even if it does not contain any cheese. In his defense the judge cited the fact that there is no rice in rice flakes, no coffee in coffee cakes, no rock in rock cakes and no angel in angel cake.

COUNTER AERIAL BOMB ATTACKS ARE CONTINUED

A school was hit and a club set on fire. An entire row of houses was demolished and residents were buried in the wreckage. Rescue squads worked all night to dig them out.

Throughout the night nuisance raiders roamed over various parts of western Scotland, the northern Midlands and north-east England, dropping occasional bombs and causing some casualties.

London experienced its 519th air raid alarm of the war. It began at midnight and lasted until 3:30 a. m. The night attack on London began when a raider, drawing heavy bursts of anti-aircraft fire, roared swiftly over the capital and then dived low to drop incendiaries and high explosives.

Began At Dusk.
A heavy raid on a southwestern coastal town began at dusk when a single plane dropped numerous incendiaries, which were doused immediately. Later pairs of raiders circled over the town, dropping explosive bombs, but they were finally driven off by a heavy barrage of ground fire.

Five bombs dropped on another east coast town were quickly put out.

At the beginning of the night the raiders crossed the north-east coast in waves at a terrific altitude while anti-aircraft batteries roared and searchlights illuminated the sky for miles.

Berlin Report.
BERLIN, March 15.—While R. A. F. planes attacked western Germany, strong forces of German bombers pounded industrial centers in Scotland and the English midlands, authoritative Berlin quarters announced today.

(Editor's Note: Dispatches from London told of another heavy German raid on the Glasgow area last night. Some persons were killed and a large number injured when bombs destroyed a block of flats, the British air ministry said.)

German authorities said the weather favored the German raiders and that incendiary and high explosive bombs of all calibers were showered upon objectives which were clearly visible in the bright moonlight.

They said British planes penetrated western Germany and that weak formations dropped explosive and incendiary bombs, but that resulting fires were extinguished quickly. One R. A. F. bomber was stated to have been shot down.

Yesterday, according to an official communiqué, German reconnaissance planes sank two British merchant ships—one of 4,000 and the other of 2,000 tons—in the Irish sea.

No Nazi Respite
LONDON, March 15.—Giving the Germans no respite in spite of favorable weather conditions, the R. A. F. during the night attacked the bustling Ruhr industrial area and the whole invasion coast from Norway to Brest, the air ministry announced today.

Nazi planes returned for the second successive night with destructive blows on Glasgow and other sectors in Scotland and England, but new British night fighting methods—with the dash new "Beaux" plane taking an important part—minimized the effect of the raids.

Five German night raiders were reported shot down—three of them by the speedy "Beaux."

Panama also wants the United States government to give back to the republic in 1966 public lands in the city of Colon which were originally granted the Panama Railway Company in 1907. Panama contends that under the terms of that old agreement, the lands should revert to the republic in 1966.

Hitherto, the American government has maintained that permanent possession of those lands passed to the United States under the Panama-American treaty of 1903.

Indications are the United States government will seek to postpone any new ruling on the land question until some future date.

Legion Banquet Plans Progress

Local Ticket Sale Is Picking
Up, Chairman Sweesy
Announces

ANNOUNCE MORE
COMMITTEE HEADS

This year's National Commander's Banquet of the American Legion posts of the 26th District is shaping up as one of the most outstanding ever given, General Chairman Ches. C. Sweesy announced today, and way tickets are going. It will tax the banquet facilities at The Cathedral to take care of the number of persons expected to attend.

The demand for tickets from the posts in Beaver, Butler, Mercer counties, and even over into Ohio has exceeded all expectations, and local residents who are desirous of attending are warned that they must have tickets as soon before the supply is exhausted.

Due to the fact that National Commander Milo C. Warner has just returned from England, where he reviewed conditions there for the purpose of aiding the Legion in its Home Defense plans, his address on this occasion is expected to be most timely.

Additional committee chairman have been announced by General Chairman Sweesy. Louis A. Coon is vice chairman of the banquet, with tickets for the county in the hands of Wilbert J. Chapman, and outside the county in the hands of Clarence S. Jarrett.

Deaths of the Day

Mrs. Elmer O. Minnigh.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Elmer O. Minnigh, aged 59, who passed away at 4:30 p. m. Thursday at her home in Kinsman, Ohio. Mrs. Minnigh, mother of Rev. Wendell E. Minnigh of Townville, Pa., former pastor of Wesley and King's Chapel Methodist churches, has been ill for some time. She underwent an operation in this city on January 14 and was taken to her home on January 31 where she lingered in a grave condition until her death.

Mrs. Minnigh and her family had resided, among other places, at New Wilmington, West Middlesex, Volant and Edenburg. For over forty years, the gracious mistress of the manse, Mrs. Minnigh had devoted a full life of service to her family, to the church, and the communities in which she lived. Her relatives and a host of friends mourn her loss.

Circie Annette Bates, daughter of George and Nanette Bates, was born June 12, 1881, at State Line, Pa. She was united in marriage with the Rev. Elmer Orville Minnigh on February 7, 1900. To this happy union there were born four children, all sons, two of whom survive, Harold Arden Minnigh, of Linville, Pa., and Rev. Wendell E. Minnigh of Townville.

Besides the husband and sons, Mrs. Minnigh leaves the following brothers and sisters: Morah V. Bates of Conneaut, Ohio; Mrs. Charles Bush of Williamsfield, O.; Mrs. Harry L. Sharp of Kinsman, Ohio, and Earle Bates of Denver, Colorado. Five grandchildren, also, are living.

Funeral services will be conducted from the McLean funeral home at Kinsman on Sunday, March 16, at 2:30 o'clock, in charge of the Rev. Lee D. Smith, pastor of the First Methodist church of Sharon. Interment services will be held in the cemetery at Jamestown, Pa.

Thomas Britton
Thomas Britton, of Ellwood City, passed away Friday evening at 7 o'clock in the Aultman hospital. Canton, O., death being caused by pneumonia. Mr. Britton was visiting with his daughters in the Ohio city when he became ill.

Surviving are the following children, Thomas of Ellwood City, George of Wampum, Ben of East Palestine, O., Willard of Ellwood City, Mrs. Laura Davidson of New Castle, Mrs. Gladys Ault of West Bridgewater, Miss Anna Britton of Canton, Mrs. Doris Madaris of Canton and Mrs. Ida Moran of Chetron. He was preceded in death by his wife in 1939.

The body has been removed to the Marshall funeral home, Wampum, and will be taken to the home in Chetron where funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Clinton cemetery.

Thomas Jenkins

A well known former resident of this city, Thomas Jenkins of Alliquippa, passed away Friday morning in this city. He had been ill for three weeks.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence in Alliquippa. Interment will be at 4:15 o'clock in Oak Park cemetery where the casket will be opened to permit local friends to see Mr. Jenkins.

Mr. Jenkins, born in Llangennech, South Wales, left New Castle for Alliquippa 26 years ago. While here he was employed in the hot mill at the New Castle works and at the time of his death was employed by the Jones & Laughlin Steel company. He was a member of the First Congregational church here.

Surviving are his wife and a daughter, Mrs. Isaac James, Alliquippa; three brothers and two sisters in South Wales.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Dolan O'Leary.

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Dolan O'Leary, aged 82, passed away Friday evening at 10:06 o'clock at her home, 114 South Scott street. She was the widow of Michael Patrick O'Leary, who preceded her in death on February 27, 1932.

Mrs. O'Leary was born November 1, 1858, in Ireland, daughter of James and Mary Whalen Dolan. She was married in Ireland in 1880 and came to this country in 1882, making her home in Sharon. She had been a New Castle resident for the past 54 years and was a member of St. Mary's church and the L. C. B. A.

Of a family of eight children, four survive. They are Mrs. Nellie Smyth of Youngstown, Mrs. John Maher, John V. and Joseph F. O'Leary, all of New Castle. Twenty-two grandchildren are also living.

Funeral mass will be celebrated Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from St. Mary's church. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

The body has been removed to the Zehner funeral home, 133 North Beaver str., where the family will receive friends this evening from eight to nine o'clock, Sunday and Monday afternoons and evenings from two to four and seven to nine o'clock.

Mrs. Stinson Funeral

LOY-CLARK WEDDING AT EPWORTH CHURCH

Before a beautiful, embanked altar of palms and flowers, interspersed with gleamingandelabra, Miss Patricia Loy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Loy of Chestnut street, became the bride of Frank M. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Clark of Bessemer, Friday evening, in the Epworth Methodist church.

The marriage vows were exchanged at 7:30 o'clock before a large assemblage of friends and relatives with Rev. W. A. Thornton, pastor, and his son, Rev. W. G. Thornton of Waterford, Pa., officiating.

Following the ceremony, Miss Betty Hogue sang the solo, "O Promise Me," and Miss Anna Pele church organist, played nuptial strains throughout the wedding service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of sheer white marquisette, marked here and there by white lace medallions, and a small lace collar. Her veil was fingertip with a crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a beautiful arm bouquet of calla lilies, tied with white satin ribbon.

Miss Frances Loy, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor, and was attired in a pouffe blue tulle frock, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and pink carnations, tied with blue satin ribbon. Another sister, Miss Myrna Loy, was flower girl, and wore a pink tulle gown with matching bonnet and basket.

Thomas C. Lucas served the groom as best man, and ushers included Walter Ziegler, George Fletcher, and Harry Deamer.

After a brief wedding trip, the couple will be at home to their friends in their newly furnished home in Bessemer after March 17.

The bride is a graduate of the New Castle Senior High School, and Mr. Clark graduated from the Bessemer High School and is affiliated with the Bessemer Cement Company.

SAVINGS FOR DEFENSE

SALE of defense bonds, stamps and certificates to the public will begin May 1 at post offices, banks and department stores. The three forms of government obligation offer varying units of value to enable those in both low and middle income groups to make their contribution to financing the tremendous costs of the defense program.

In a very real sense the purchase of such securities to the extent that one is able, though that may involve some measure of self-denial, is a patriotic duty. Doubtless the great majority of people will be ready and anxious to do their share.

Besides the direct help thus provided government, such investment by the lower and middle income groups is of national importance in a respect not commonly recognized. Under existing conditions vast impetus is being given to purchasing power through rising payrolls.

Already in some plants engaged in defense production workers are putting in 55 to 60 hours a week, with time and one-half pay rates for all time above 40 hours a week. Most persons may claim no laurels for their prudence and after ten lean years there is a natural inclination to lavishness with the extra dollars they suddenly find in their possession.

In ordinary times this would be strengthened to the whole economic structure, but today defense production has priority over all other production. That means an ultimate limit on making of consumer goods. Present indication is that this limit will be more than enough to meet amply all necessary needs and to provide reasonable luxuries. Yet once consumption demand got ahead of supply the result would be a rising spiral of prices which might plunge the nation into an inflationary period.

So the extent that wage earnings can be diverted from outlandish extravagances into purchase of government bonds, stamps and certificates, a brake is put on runaway prices, which neither seller nor buyer wants. Emphasis is placed on wage earnings rather than other income for the reason that families living on $3,000 or less a year account for fully 70 per cent of expenditures for the main categories of consumption. The savings achieved in this way become, in effect, deferred purchasing power and establish a cushion against the time when defense production ceases.

A BLIND SPOT

In these martial times the thought intrudes that there must be in every military genius' mental make-up a blind spot. Start with Alexander who grabbed off the title of Great. He never needed Asia, least of all the Persian part of it. But he insisted on invading that absolutely worthless area and he got his.

Take Napoleon. What was there for him in Russia if he had roped the whole rampaging outfit and dragged the bewhiskered bunch back to his home corral? But into Russia the little Corsican had to go and when he turned back, trimmed to a fareyewell he was still wondering what it was all about.

Take Hitler. A few years ago he headed for a recovery of a corridor in Poland and while at it he picked up Denmark, Norway, Holland, Belgium and most of France. In the midst of his triumphs Hitler conceived the idea that he could cross the English Channel and, capturing the citadel of the British Empire, take that whole stupendous shebang into camp.

Hitler doesn't need England. The British Empire, if he could get it, would be a back-breaking burden. But his blind spot did not let him see this. He set out to hang up a sensational score—largely because it would be sensational—and like Alexander and Napoleon he will end up wondering what it is all about.

TRYING TO PLAY SAFE

A noted foreign correspondent said recently that he had heard more defeatist talk about Great Britain in the first five days after his return to the United States than he had heard in as many months in Europe.

Why is it, then, that so many little governments, wanting Great Britain to win and believing that it will win in the long run, succumb to Hitler's blitz-diplomacy and allow themselves to be overrun by the German military machine and the Gestapo?

In the first place, they are thoroughly afraid of Nazi terrorism. Germany is nearer to them than Britain. If they resist, they may reason, Hitler will bomb their cities and kill many of the people. If they surrender, their situation will be no worse and they will have saved themselves from the dreaded physical destruction.

Eventually, when Great Britain wins, they believe they will regain their freedom. If they set up shadow governments in London to co-operate with the British, and let Hitler set up what they hope will be only temporary governments in their capitals, they may figure that they will come out better in the long run.

The trouble with such reasoning is that every bloodless victory makes Hitler that much stronger, increases his power over other little nations, gives him fresh supplies to replenish his waning stocks, and makes victory just so much harder for Britain.

American automobile factories are smashing all output records with a production of 25,000 cars a day. If the nation is headed for the bow-wow, it will make the journey in modern equipage.

There is going to be quite a scene a little later when Mussolini tells Hitler that Italy has to quit.

Japan may be rash but it is doing a powerful lot of winding up in the box before letting go of the ball.

Everybody has ideas for promoting the general welfare but no one seems to know what to do to help out domestic tranquility.

The Parent Problem

HOW TO CURB STONE THROWERS.

A very hazardous habit among children from three to twelve is stone throwing. As a rule it is most prevalent among only children and runabouts who haven't learned to play freely and happily with other children. Hence we find many stone throwers in the suburban areas and among children of well-to-do families.

In a "good" neighborhood, also, which borders on a "poor" neighborhood, or has in its midst a family of tots and runabouts who, not acceptable to this neighborhood, are ostracized, violent stone-throwing may come from the unaccepted children. But on the average, I should guess, more stones are thrown by children in the upper economic third of our population than in the lower third. Be that as it may, stone-throwing is a very undesirable practice. It should be nipped early.

You see, it is a temptation to the youngster who cannot get along with his playmates, who is teased, ridiculed, and threatened by them, to throw stones at them. This he can do and keep at a "safe distance." Also, he can do it from ambush. Practically all stone-throwing is a symptom of cowardice and comes from a feeling of defeat.

Throwing At A Target. Let me entreat you, my fellow parents of the young child, to begin as soon as he can toddle to train him not to throw anything but a ball. Encourage him to throw a ball at a target. Out of doors, in a safe place, put up a tin can on a box and suggest that he throw a ball or stone at it. This will amuse him and help to train him in judging distances and in muscular coordination.

Make clear to him, however, that he must never throw stones at any other thing or at any person. The minute he violates these prohibitions, give him a spanking. Do likewise if ever he offends thereafter. If you are decisive and consistent, you will nip the stone-throwing habit in the bud.

Punishment Necessary. Proceed in like fashion when he hits any person or animal. Consider this a very serious offense to be dealt with severely. On the contrary, if he uses his fists in self-defense, approve him. But he should learn early that he must never fight with weapons, sticks or stones, that if he cannot defend himself with his fists, he must retreat and under no condition throw sticks or stones even when assailed by others who do. I wish teachers at school would carefully draw the line between fighting with fists and fighting with weapons.

A bad substitute for throwing sticks and stones is calling others ugly names. Prevent this early. When you hear your tot call another person an unkind name, punish him immediately. Be very exacting in this matter. If your child is six or eight and throws stones or calls names, punish him, by assigning him to sit doing nothing where you can see him for exactly half an hour.

Solving Parent Problems. Q. At what age would you suggest reading to a baby?

A. As soon as he will look at a picture for a few moments at a time, you can talk to him about it from the page. Many children will respond early during the second year. It is helpful to have sung lullabies and said nursery rhymes to him while caring for him, months and months earlier. ## HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 6:06; sun rises tomorrow 6:11.

An elephant, it is estimated, eats an average of $2.840 worth of food in a year's time. Maybe that's why so many of them work in the circus, where the big dough is.

An Omaha man was ejected from four rooming houses in succession because he snored so loud. He might be useful as an air raid siren if this country is ever attacked.

The Japanese are said to be feeding their horses tea leaves. They better watch out they'll be knocking off for their afternoon tea when they are most needed.

A Philadelphia school teacher was dismissed on a $1,600-a-year pension because she called the president a liar and a murderer in front of her pupils. These are getting to be dangerous days to be calling the president names like that.

"Miss Agnes ain't home today," the colored maid answered to a caller in a North Hill home. "She's gone down to de class."

"What class?" asked the caller.

"Miss Agnes goin' to be married, and she's takin' lessons in domestic science."

Fame hasn't spoiled Eddie Guest. He can live in a mansion and write about needing shoes and make you feel sorry for him.

FOR THE RAINY DAY

"My brother over there is an expert at ribbing."

"Yeah! Well why doesn't he go out to Hollywood?"

"It doesn't rain enough out there. He mends umbrellas."

England is planning to raise 14 times the present crop of onions. Maybe they are going to blow their breaths in the Nazis' faces and gas them in case of invasion.

Smile for today. "As worthless as a Turkish promise."

Do all nations favor evil, for goodness sake? No, it's only that buzzards eagerly join the party where meat is free.

Dr. I. Q. doesn't believe women speak to pick a woman to repeat the tongue-twister.

An old-timer is one who can remember when he could buy a dozen of eggs for a dime, but he forgets that he had to work a whole hour to earn that dime.

RIGHT ATTITUDE

"Next to a beautiful girl, what do you think is the most interesting thing in the world?"

"I'm next to a beautiful girl. I'm not worrying about such statistics."

The Sheep Hill philosopher says that it doesn't make any difference if you are on the right track, you are very apt to get run over if you just sit there.

If he indignantly declares it wouldn't be ethical, he probably means it would help your pocket instead of his.

As a final effort to abolish sin, we might persuade politicians to declare it an injury to the poor man.

Dr. Schmidt, of Goebbel's office, says: "Any race has the natural right to destroy menaces." You're telling us!

A young man asked a maiden to wed.

"Go ask father," the maiden said. "The young men knew her father was dead."

Also he knew the life he had led. Therefore he knew what she meant when she said:

"Go ask father."

Think how much lower taxes would be if not a single office-holder handed out gifts to his friends at public expense.

It isn't flattering if the quiz man selects you to answer the big pay-off question. He selects somebody who looks dumb enough to miss.

A Cleveland man, who did not owe the government any income tax money, gave them a $50 bill in spite of the fact that he lost money in his business last year. He said it was worth at least a dollar a week just to live in a country where one can talk and do as he pleases. If all the 130 million were just like that, what a land this would be.

Americanism: Thousands of efficient men eager to help, trusting the housing job to a man like Palmer, who hasn't done a lick in six months.

Last year the crop of babies was 780,000 less than the normal increase of 1921. And the prolific will inherit the earth.

Question: Should a girl who has broken her engagement after a betrothal of a year place an announcement to that effect in the newspaper?—B. B.

Answer: There are some people who think that a notice to that effect should be placed in the newspaper. But the more conservative viewpoint is against such publicity as unnecessary and not in the best of taste. If the engagement is broken after the wedding invitations have been sent out, they should be recalled by the issuance of cards stating that the wedding will not take place. No explanation, however, is necessary.

Question: When the salad (at luncheon or dinner) is served before the main course may it, properly, be eaten as soon as put on the table or should it remain untouched until after the main course?—Harriet.

Answer: The salad is usually served after the main course, but should it be served either before or along with the main course it may be eaten at that time.

"Old Testament" Course To Start

President Galbreath And Faculty Members At Westminster College To Speak

Next Tuesday evening at 7:45 at the First Baptist church, New Castle, Dr. R. F. Galbreath, president of Westminster College, will start the 5-night "Old Testament" course. The other instructors will be Rev. W. B. Jamison of the Westminster faculty and Dr. John Orr, Professor of Bible at Westminster. This Leadership Training course is being sponsored by the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association.

The schedule for the course is as follows: Tuesday, March 18th, Dr. R. F. Galbreath, Theme, "The Old Testament as Literature and in Literature." Thursday March 20th, Rev. W. B. Jamison, theme, "Old Testament History." Tuesday March 25th, Dr. John Orr, theme, "The Books of the Law." Thursday March 26th, Dr. John Orr, theme, "The Poetic Books." Tuesday April 1st, Dr. John Orr, theme, "The Prophets and their Books."

Sunday schools superintendents are urged to announce this course to their members and to appoint officers, teachers or members to attend. The course is open to every Sunday school member wishing to improve his Biblical knowledge, and this is an opportunity that should be taken advantage of by many of the Sunday schools of Lawrence County. Both city and county public school teachers are also invited to attend.

The Great Game Of Politics

immediately after using. Yet, unless somebody in our Government makes a determined effort for both, this country is headed for an inflation the disaster of which cannot be exaggerated.

IF the President will not lead in this fight, then Congress must. It will be criminal neglect not to make it. It is a terrible thing to let the people rush toward a catastrophic credit collapse because their leaders shrink from dealing with unpleasant realities. In a statement on the subject made before the seven-billion demand, Senator Taft said: "We might as well face the fact that these taxes must fall on every man, woman and child. The Government will require twenty-five per cent of the national income to pay its expenses. It is clearly impossible to obtain anything like that amount from the wealth or through corporation taxes. If we confiscated all incomes in excess of $10,000, we could get only about three and one-half billion of which we already get forty per cent under existing laws. And we would only get that for a year."

CONTINUING, Mr. Taft said: "If we can get from the wealthy five to ten per cent of the national income, we will have done a good job. So if we require twenty-five per cent of that income for governmental expense, all the rest of the people must contribute from fifteen to twenty per cent of their individual incomes. This means more income taxes, sales taxes and payroll taxes. No one disputes statements such as these. Actually, in view of the seven-billion demand, the Taft statement is conservative. Yet what is the reaction of the New Deal politicians and the New Deal press?

THEIR reaction is against economy and against taxes—except for corporations and the rich. It is incredible that this sort of dangerous demagoguery should be practiced in an emergency such as this. It is shocking that under existing circumstances the President should endorse the bill to increase by one hundred per cent the appropriation of the Office of Government Reports, an entirely non-essential agency, conducted by one of his secretaries, Mr. Mellet, and generally regarded as primarily designed for propaganda purposes. Backed by the White House, it is just about to pass the House. A relatively small amount is involved, but it is the example that counts. If the people and Congress do not soon grasp the national peril inherent in this Administration attitude, there will be no way to avert a ruinous smash.

TABERNACLE CRUSADE WILL CLOSE SUNDAY

Young people of the Calvary Gospel Tabernacle, Vogan street, on the east side, have announced their preaching services at the tabernacle for Sunday, at 11 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and 7:30 p. m., ending their two weeks evangelistic crusade.

A mass meeting is planned for the afternoon at 2:30. Their evangelist and crusade leader, Rev. John Carrara, has announced the following sermon subjects: "Living for Christ," "Why I Am a Protestant," and "The Carpenter, Companion of the Lord Jesus Christ—Judas."

MAITLAND CHURCH

SERVICES FOR WEEK—Evangelistic services will be held each evening next week, with the exception of Saturday, at 7:30 o'clock in the Maitland Memorial Prime Methodist church. The combined church will take part in each service.

Monday will be Young People's night; Tuesday, family night, the Welker sisters will sing; Wednesday will be Billy Sunday night with special music arranged; Thursday neighbors' night, there will be singing by the Blair trio, and Friday will be all nations night.

Hints On Etiquette

If you are invited out to dinner or for the evening and a casual caller drops in "for a moment," it is only courteous to your hostess to be and to the caller to explain to the latter that while you are delighted to see him, you have a previous engagement which must be kept.

COMMON SALT FOR BRINE—Use common salt in making a brine for pickles. You cannot get results with salt that has chemicals added—either iodine or to keep it from "caking" in damp weather.

Fourth Sunday In Pre-Easter Drive

Attendance Figures Increasing As Campaign Proceeds—Will End On Easter

Tomorrow will be the fourth Sunday of the "Pre-Easter" Advance and good progress has been made in this effort to increase Evangelistic Sunday School Attendance, Church Attendance and Bible Study. However, the big half of the campaign still remains and it is thought that the attendance figures will continue to gain and climax with Easter Sunday April 13.

The 20 participating New Castle Sunday schools divided into four groups, are now well organized and their attendance figures are complete to date. Most of these 20 Sunday schools have figured out a plan to turn in the percentage of Sunday School attendance that remained for church.

The Sunday schools in the district outside of New Castle, are now lining up and some have all of their figures up to date. In the Wampum District the Moravia Presbyterian has 18 points, the Chewton Christian 9 and the West Pittsburg Methodist 2. Other participating Sunday Schools are Wampum Presbyterian, Wampum Methodist, Clinton Methodist and Newport Methodist.

In the Mt. Jackson District, Bessemer Presbyterian has 32 points, Enon Valley Presbyterian, 25 points, Edinburg Methodist, 2 points and Edinburg Christian, 1 point. Other participating Sunday schools are Westfield Presbyterian, Mt. Jackson U. P., Bethel U. P., Hillsville Methodist and Enon Valley Christian.

In the Ellwood District the First Christian Sunday school has 27, the First Methodist, 17, the Immanuel Reformed, 16 and the Wilmersburg Methodist, 12. The Hill Memorial Presbyterian and the First Baptist are also enrolled. In the Wilmington District the Shenango U. P. has 13 points with the Volant Methodist and the Rich Hill Presbyterian and the East Brook Methodist.

Also enrolled, Pulaski District has King's Chapel Methodist, with 13 points, and the Harbor U. P. enrolled, Slippery Rock District has the Oak Grove U. P. with 10 points and the Plaingrove District has Plaingrove U. P. enrolled.

There are no true native sparrows in America. The imported English sparrow is the only true sparrow, and all others are finches.

MOTHER'S CLASS HAS LUNCHEON-MEETING

The Mother's class, of the First Methodist church, gathered in the Highland avenue home of Mrs. J. C. Burdette, Friday, for a 1 o'clock luncheon, with 22 persons present, and Mary Owens shared as a special guest.

Regular business routine was transacted after the luncheon, with plans being made for the annual Mothers and Daughters banquet.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. John W. Louer, and Mrs. Fred M. Stoll introduced the program for the afternoon.

Robert Emerick displayed his magical talent after which games and St. Patrick stories were enjoyed.

Missionary Circle.

Members of the Nora Landis Missionary Circle, of the First Baptist church were delightfully entertained, Thursday evening, in the home of Mrs. Mabel McCartney, with Amy Druschel serving as co-hostess.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. I. Gardner and Mrs. Gertrude Thompson, and an excellent review on the study book "Dangerous Opportunity" was given by Pearl Hockenberry. Master Gordon McCartney favored the group with several selections on his steel guitar.

After the hostesses served delicious refreshments, Miss Hockenberry invited the group to her home, on Maryland avenue, April 10, and Mrs. Hazel Ramsey will be co-hostess.

Brown Guild.

Officers were elected at the recent meeting of the Brown Guild of the Third U. P. church, held at the church.

They are: president, Claribel Cooper; vice-president, Dorothy Craig; secretary, Helen Paul, and treasurer, Mary Elizabeth Hopkins. Isabelle Burke conducted devotions and Helen Paul gave the temperance report. Special guest on this occasion was Rev. C. R. Thayer, who led the group in discussion. Tasty refreshments were served by Mrs. Plummer D. Gibson and Mrs. Manley R. Bates. The next meeting will be announced.

Larkspur Kensington

Members of the Larkspur Kensington met in the home of Mrs. Lillian Klinger, of Niles, O., on Thursday evening.

A dinner was served at noon and an informal time was enjoyed. Helen Johnson assisted in serving.

Special guest was Wilberta Cooper of New Castle. Sewing and knitting were pastimes.

On March 27, the group will meet in the home of Mrs. Ben Jenkins, Struthers, O.

W. A. C. Class.

W. A. C. class members of Wesley Methodist church, enjoyed an informal meeting Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Bessie Coblentz, West Washington street extension. Various games were enjoyed, after which lunch was served, the hostess being aided in serving by Mrs. Harold Russell.

Next meeting will be April 11 with Mrs. Arch Davis, Boroline street, as hostess.

Sugar originated in India in the first century A. D. The word "sugar" however, is Arabic, the Arabs having brought it westward some ten centuries later. It was first introduced into Europe in the twelfth century.

What Is A Hotel?

A pile of stone and steel and glass—yes, but more than that—a group of people trained to serve the public—yes, but more than that—a place where you can eat or sleep in comfort—yes, but more than that—a good hotel—say the Castleton for instance—is the civic center of its community—a definite part of the life of its city—a place to use every day—and especially on Saturday night—a place where friends meet and enjoy life a little better because the hotel is there—try the Castleton tonight for some enjoyment.

Anniversary Exhibit Shows Auto Progress

For a capsule history of the development of the automobile industry, or a list of most of the automobiles that were ever manufactured in the United States, we recommend a look at the windows of Elliott and Waddington on North Mercer street. The windows are a part of the 25th anniversary celebration the firm is observing today but in preparing the windows they have done more than just hit on a novel window dressing, they have prepared an exhibit which should be made a permanent exhibit in some museum.

Back of the exhibit are lists of the automobiles that have been made in the United States. Some of the names you probably never heard of, cars that were the dream of the inventor and turned out to be the nightmare of the stockholders. Names like Brownicker, Kriit, Maibohn, Peppies, Orient, Briscoe, Maccar all of them automobiles that at one time had some manufacturers dreaming of pent houses and mink coats.

Over 600 Names.
There are over 600 names of cars on the lists and the list is entirely complete. It is the most complete list probably ever put together. You'll recognize names of the cars your Uncle Abner used to drive when linen dusters were standard equipment and you boasted about a tire that got you more than 3500 miles. Those were the days when every man had to be his own mechanic and farmers got out to hold their horses when those "gasoline bugs" snorted down a country lane.

On the shelves of Elliott and Waddington's windows are pieces of equipment once used. An old Gabriel horn that looks like a section of pipe line, a brass horn from a car of 1916 that looks like a tube, headlights that hung on the front of a car like a carbuncle and used oil or carbide.

Each year from 1906 on is carded and shows the developments of the years. The year 1906 was the first year Pennsylvania got out state license plates made of enameled steel. Prior to that plates were leather and issued by the counties. A Cadillac cost $750 that year and a Maxwell $780.

Motor Club In 1907.

In 1907 the first Buick was built and the average price of automobiles was $2131. The New Castle Motor Club was organized in 1907 and became a part of the A. A. A. of which organization a New Castle man, David Jameson was national president for three terms.

In 1909 Ford introduced the left hand drive for cars and the first sliding gear transmission was used. In 1910 the demountable wheel made its bow and in 1911 the first generator was attached to a car. In 1912 the first electric lights and starter were used, and in 1913 the automobile industry got up to 1000 cars per day. The first vacuum tank made its appearance that year.

In 1916 John B. Elliott and John Waddington started their accessory business. In 1922 balloon tires came along. In 1923 four wheel brakes were introduced, and in 1924 hydraulic brakes. In 1927 the first safety glass was put into cars and in 1930 Elliott and Waddington moved to their present location.

In 1932 compulsory inspection came into being. In 1933 knee action and in 1939 the sealed beam headlight made its appearance. Every year has some contribution to the automobile and it is all listed in the Elliott and Waddington display. Already the national automobile show has asked for the display to be sent to the show of 1941.

It's an unique display one that took months to gather together and one that you should see. And in the viewing of it you can also remember that Elliott and Waddington are celebrating their 25th birthday today.

Builders Plan For Initiation

Schoolboys Find Gra-Y Clubs 'Real Fun'

SCHOOL CLUB SHOWN WITH FACULTY SUPERVISORS

When teams take the field next week to solicit Y. M. C. A. members, there'll be a number of Gra-Y lads in the ranks as workers. They'll be showing their appreciation for what the association has done for them. Clubs are carried on in the city's grade schools, and the work has expanded remarkably. A typical school club is pictured here. The membership campaigners will open their drive Tuesday night. Their goal: 800 members and more than $1,000 in cash.

Elks To Observe St. Patrick's Day

Splendid Entertainment Is Promised For This Evening In Elks Temple

New Castle Lodge of Elks members and their ladies are assured of another splendid program this evening in the series of Saturday night parties, which have been running throughout the winter. Chairman Arthur H. Carpenter stated today. Tonight's party will be a St. Patrick's Day affair, and a stellar floor show will top off the program of the evening, which will start promptly at 11 o'clock.
New Castle Lodge of Elks is looking forward to the entertainment of the Northwestern District meeting here on April 20, which will start with a business session in the afternoon, followed by a banquet at 6 o'clock, and a program of entertainment. There will be the usual Elks fellowship prevailing during the day. New Castle having earned an enviable reputation for this during the state convention several years ago.

After devotional and business session which was in charge of the president, Mrs. Glen Eppinger, games and a social time provided entertainment. Mrs. Kelso and her associate hostess Mrs. Clair Brown served a delicious lunch.

Motor Police Sent To Strike Scene

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, March 15.—State motor police were ordered today to the strike-bound Bridgeville plant of the Vanadium Steel Corporation, near Pittsburgh, to assist in the removal of materials deemed vital to the national defense program.

In directing the state police to the scene of the five-week-old labor dispute, Gov. Arthur H. James made it clear that his only purpose was to furnish protection to the men who will remove Ferro-Vanadium supplies, used in the production of alloy steels.

He had no other interest in the strike, said the governor, explaining that the lack of the Ferro-Vanadium had tied up production in other national defense work.
The governor termed the labor dispute an "outlaw strike" because, he said, these men are out on strike in spite of the recommendations of their national officers.

HILLSVILLE

ENTERTAINS CLUB.

Associates of the Kardette club of New Castle motored to the home of Mrs. Laurence Kiminkinen Tuesday evening. Bridge was in play. High score awards going to Thelma Hemphill, Donna Gilmore and the galloper was captured by Lucille Brady.

Bath Magic!

Although your daily bath may not be imbued with the wondrous powers accredited the fabled "fountain of youth", it can serve you remarkably in many ways.

For instance, as it cleanses the body's surface your bath acts as tonic for skin, nerves and circulation — stimulating sparkle and color. . . . In short, helping you look and be at your best.

BIRTHMARKS

It's remarkable how old superstitions about birthmarks persist today in spite of all that is written about them. It's my observation that the old wives' tales about birthmarks are just about the most widespread superstitions we have today. I don't think there are many races of people who don't regard birthmarks with a good deal of awe.

This superstition was given a pseudo-scientific twist a few years ago when prenatal influence was being stressed by childists. Then birthmarks were regarded as signs of some startling experience that had happened to the mother when she was carrying the child. For this belief, of course, there is no factual basis.

But just try and tell some people that. Folks in the backwoods country where I have served as physician for more years than I like to remember, are simple country folk, and they take their superstitions seriously, especially the one about birthmarks.

To some of them this or that birthmark looks like the snake that frightened the mother; another looks like the aeroplane the mother had a ride in; another looks like the horse that ran away and spilled out the mother.

We know today that birthmarks are caused when some of the pigment that goes into our coloring gets misplaced. We know very little about what controls distribution of this pigment. Some of which goes to the eyes, some to the skin, some to the hair, and so on. But somehow every now and then, some of the pigment goes to the wrong place and then we have a birthmark.

Fortunately, these marks are usually quite small, or they are on some part of the body usually covered by clothing. But every now and then, we see a very large birthmark on the face or neck, that amounts to a serious disfigurement. It marks the individual apart as much as though he had some other deformity and if the child happens to be a girl, it is a rather serious thing because it will influence her whole life.

Such birthmarks can be remedied or removed and the parents should see to it that they are. But here again we run into old superstition. Some people think that birthmarks should not be removed. They see in them some sort of supernatural phenomenon, some mark that was put there for some strange reason, and they refuse to let anything be done about them.

I myself know of several such cases, and when I meet these people so disfigured, I think what a shame it was that neglect or superstition has been allowed to influence a person's life to the extent that these do.

Ministerial Group To Hear Librarian

Round Table Discussion Will Be Led By Attorney Donaldson And Rev. Rose

Miss Alice Sterling, New Castle librarian, will present a display and give a brief review of the latest religious books at the meeting of the New Castle Ministerial association to be held in the First Presbyterian church, North Jefferson and Falls streets, Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Miss Sterling will speak at 10:45.

At the close, the ministers will have an opportunity to borrow a book.

The regular program will consist of a round table discussion, to be led by Attorney Leroy K. Donaldson, assistant district attorney, and Rev. J. Calvin Rose.

Pearson League Games Exciting

Four more exciting cage tiffs were played in the Pearson Basketball league last night.

Minnesota was in fine fettle and handed Ohio State a 30-16 setback. Purdue romped off the court with a 44-43 verdict. Illinois upset Wisconsin, 21-19, and Michigan had enough to squeeze out a 21-20 decision over Northwestern to win the fourth round title.

Delliquadri and A. Russo, each with 20 points, were high scorers for the evening. H. Libendorfer, Summer, Mayberry, Pitzer, DeLorenzo, Campbell, J. Sullivan, Beynon were next in the high scoring division. Tex Richards officiated.

The mainspring of the average wristwatch, if straightened out, would be about one foot long.

Registration Of Unemployed Is Urged In County

State Employment Officer
Urges Registration To Be Made At Once

An appeal to all workers now engaged in defense industries and who possess skills needed in carrying out the defense program of the nation to register at once with their local State Employment Service is made by Ewan Clague, Director of the Bureau of Employment Security.

John Velker, manager of the local State Employment Office, located at 132 1/2 E. Washington St., New Castle, Pa., explains that the registration about which Mr. Clague speaks represents a nation-wide effort as part of the national defense program to get the unemployed back to work as quickly as possible, but also to insure that as soon as workers are needed in defense production they can be reached without delay.

A particular appeal is made for the immediate registration of: (1) All workers who are unemployed and capable of holding jobs; and (2) All employed persons in the State who have had experience in the following trades but whose present employment does not utilize the skills of these trades: In aircraft manufacturing — airplane sheet metal workers, airplane woodworkers, aeronautical engineers, and inspectors; in ship building — ship carpenters, loftsmen, boatbuilders, ship fitters, caulkers, and marine machinists; in machine shops and machinery manufacturing — machinists, tool makers, die makers, lathe operators, and tool designers.

The Employment Service does not encourage or desire workers who are employed in any of the above industries to register.

DAILY DOZEN (From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

March is always epidemic—a good time for spring tonic.

Spring tonics are old-fashioned and unnecessary today.

In spring, resistance to infection is always low.

In grandmother's day there was a reason for spring tonics.

Today's mother need not be worried about spring.

Her children can be permanently protected against infections.

Scientific weapons successfully combat many children's diseases.

Some parents fail to provide adequate preventive protection.

The infectious diseases of childhood are not necessarily fatal.

But they often leave a damaged heart or kidneys or ears.

Her children are naturally immune to certain diseases.

Preventive inoculation or curative sera protect children.

Schenck "Spendee"

Grace Poggi

Dancer Grace Poggi, twice married, took the stand in New York federal court to testify for the government in the income tax evasion trial of Joseph M. Schenck, board chairman of Twentieth Century-Fox Film corporation. Miss Poggi, termed a spendee of part of Schenck's income by Assistant U. S. Attorney M. F. Correa, testified that she stayed at Schenck's Beverly Hills, Cal., home during three months of 1935 when he was in Europe, and that she used his yacht and accepted an automobile from him.

No Major Work On Route No. 422

Senator McQuiddy Informed
Work Not To Be Started
In Immediate Future

Route 422 to the east of New Castle will not undergo any major improvement in the immediate future, State Senator J. K. McQuiddy was notified today by Chief Engineer Thomas C. Frame of the State Highway department.

McQuiddy had urged, with the Greater New Castle association, that more improvement be made.

The highway chief wrote the senator.

We have had the condition of Route 422 brought to our attention at frequent intervals and have personally made an inspection of the route. While the route is not modern, it is structurally intact to the extent that we do not feel that we could justify its reconstruction in the immediate future.

He recalled that "considerable expenditure" has been made in the way of stone shoulders along the route and that 22 feet of traffic surface is now available.

Relief In County Shows Big Drop

(Special To The News)
HARRISBURG, March 15.—Direct relief payments made to needy Lawrence counties during the week ended today show a decrease of $333 from those of the previous week, according to State Treasurer F. Clair Ross.

Payments for the week totaled $7,294 which was $5,934 lower than those of the comparable week of last year. Current payments required 574 fewer checks than those of a year ago.

Words Of Wisdom

Truckers Expect Crowd At Dinner

City And County Officials Invited To Dinner Meeting Monday In The Castleton

More than the usual crowd is expected Monday night in The Castleton hotel when the Lawrence county chapter, Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association holds its regular dinner meeting. Paul W.

Keely, president of the chapter will preside at the meeting but there will be little speaking.

The attraction for the evening is the picture "Singing Wheels" a picture depicting the life of the motor transport men. It has been shown in many states to the trucking units and has attracted much attention.

City council and the mayor, and the county commissioners have been invited to attend the dinner meeting and it is probable most of them will be present.

Dr. Zoller Speaks At Closing Service

City Rescue Mission last night closed its week-long anniversary observance when a capacity congregation heard Dr. John Zoller, forefend Detroit evangelist, preach for a second time in Second U. P. church. Superintendent Archie Gibson said the "largest crowd in the mission's history" heard Dr. Zoller in the County Line street church. Sunday school takes place at the mission tomorrow at 3 p. m. and an evangelistic service will be held at 8.

for evening after a hard day you need light you can relax in!

I. E. S. Better Sight Lamps

give soothing
restful Light

When you are physically tired is no time to drive your eyes. And because reading is part of the evening's relaxation after the work or play of the day, special attention should be paid to the light by which you read. Is it free from glare? Does it give adequate seeing light so that you may read without strain? Is it correctly placed to avoid shadows on the page?

I. E. S. Better Sight Lamps are designed to give Better Light for all seeing tasks. Light is both direct and indirect, eliminating glare and shadows. Height from floor is correctly calculated for all types of lamps. Shades are flared, and white lined to reflect a maximum of light. They are handsome lamps, too, and there are styles appropriate for every room.

Are you sure your reading light is right? Call and we will send a representative to MEASURE the light with a sight meter.

Discuss State Wheat Program

Affect Of War On Wheat Prices Discussed By A. A. A. Leaders At Harrisburg

COUNTY OFFICE IS REPRESENTED

Misses Isabelle Hunt and Dorothy Harlan, of the Lawrence County Agricultural Conservation association have just returned from Harrisburg, where they attended a meeting at which R. M. Evans, national administrator of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, outlined the wheat situation to farmers and farm leaders from most Pennsylvania counties.

The meeting held in the forum of the State Education building, was primarily to give wheat farmers information relative to wheat marketing quotas which will probably be submitted to a vote shortly.

Ely Wickham of the northeast regional office, Washington, D. C., explained how marketing quotas would operate if they go into effect.

"One effect of the war will in all probability be marketing quotas for the wheat from Pennsylvania farms," Mr. Evans said. "Until we were hit by the war, we had achieved a pretty good balance between wheat production and demand. We were selling a little over 100 million bushels a year abroad, and our acreage allotments were laid out to provide in addition enough for domestic use and substantial reserves as protection against emergencies. The war shut off most of the foreign market. As a consequence we seem likely to have the accumulation of two years' unused export supplies, or about 200 million bushels beyond full reserves and probable demand."

"Unless quotas are adopted," he stated, "there is nothing to prevent wheat prices from going down to about the feed value of wheat, bringing widespread disaster to the country."

"Any opening of the foreign market for American wheat on a substantial scale is too improbable to plan on. Canada and the United States together now have accumulated surpluses sufficient to supply the entire world trade two years at the level reached before the war. Wheat prices in the other exporting countries than U. S. are far below those in this country, and even at that the farmers can sell only part of their production. The only thing that has stood between the U. S. wheat growers and similar disaster has been the farm program with its stabilization of supplies and support of fair prices by a system of loans against stored wheat.

"There is every reason," he said, "to expect that the question of whether to adopt quotas will be submitted to the vote of the farmers who will be affected, in a referendum to be held on May 31."

Discuss Nursing Program In City

Red Cross Nursing Director Of Pittsburgh Outlines Local Requirements

TO FURTHER HOME NURSING PROGRAM

Meeting with Mrs. John E. Elliott, chairman of all volunteer services of the Lawrence county chapter, American Red Cross, Miss P. Elina Smitten, director of nursing of the Pittsburgh chapter, discussed with Mrs. Elliott and Miss Margaret Devereaux, Key Red Cross nurse in this district, the possibilities of advancing home hygiene and care of the sick and also the problems pertaining to a Red Cross nursing service.

It was again clearly determined that the policies of the National Red Cross must be carried on by the Lawrence county chapter, making it impossible for the chapter to have a Red Cross nursing service until the county itself and the city supply public health nursing.

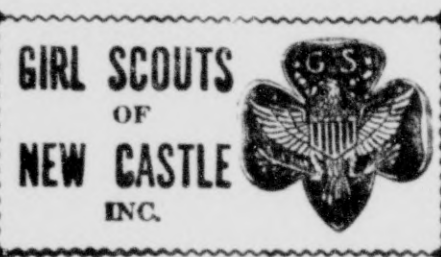

During the period while this service is being considered by the social service committee of the county, the local chapter will carry on a very concentrated home hygiene and care of the sick program. Entering the discussion were Mrs. Joseph Dapton and Mrs. Travis French, the two registered Red Cross nurses who are volunteering their services to the chapter, and Miss Edith Shremp, home hygiene instructor in the Ellwood City schools. Sister Martina and Sister M. Anacita attended the luncheon and were interested in the possibility of the New Castle hospital joining in any health program the chapter might be able to carry forward.

Mrs. L. E. Springer represented the Ellwood City branch and Miss Marion Losey and Miss Dorothy Bolte, both instructors in the Jameson hospital, who have been giving supervision of the home hygiene classes now being instructed, were also in attendance.

After the luncheon meeting, Mrs. French and Mrs. Dagnon had their home hygiene classes give demonstrations on the baby bath and hot poultices.

Mrs. Elliott is hopeful of having various luncheon meetings for the different services rendered by the chapter so that a complete understanding of the scope of the chapter's work may be given to any interested people. Mrs. William Cosel, chairman of food and nutrition, assisted by Mrs. Harold Glenn, volunteer nutrition instructor, served the luncheon with the assistance of the food and nutrition class.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Elliott presented a certificate of appreciation to Miss Edith Shremp for the services rendered in the field of home hygiene in the Ellwood City branch.

TROOP 7 held their meeting Monday evening at Trinity church. Mrs. Houston was in charge. Leader from Troop 1 was the visitor.

The cookie sale was discussed and patrol corners were held. The younger girls worked on knapsacks, and the older girls worked on first aid. Taps closed the meeting.

Scribe, Carol Patterson

TROOP 9 Girl Scouts of troop 9 held their regular meeting Wednesday at Epworth church.

Miss Margaret Ziminski was a special guest. She told the girls about the coming cookie sale and taught them a new relay game.

They worked on handicraft, and taps closed the meeting.

Scribe, Elveta Miles.

TROOP 8 Girl Scouts of troop 8 held a meeting recently in the First U. P. church, at which time they turned in some of their patches for the Afghan.

The Virginia reel and games were enjoyed. Patrol corners were formed, and they talked about the cookie sale.

Group singing was enjoyed, and taps closed the meeting.

Scribe, Betty Finch.

TROOP 11 Girl Scouts of Silvanus troop held their weekly meeting on Tuesday. Officers held a court of honor, and some of the girls tried to solve the Chinese tangram.

The troop captain went on a hike and brought back "junk" cabbage flowers to the troop, and also the news that she had seen a robin. The older girls introduced new games to the new Scouts. Relays and songs were enjoyed. The following dances were held: allemande left and grand chain.

Nearly all the slips for the troop's trip are in. March 27 is the date for adventuring. Next Tuesday a dress rehearsal will be held of the play.

Scribe, Clari Cartwright.

TROOP 4 Girl Scout troop No. 4 held their regular meeting in the old Third church recently, with Dorothy Fry, Frances Mae Loy and Elizabeth Solomon in charge.

Following games and contests were in play. Dorothy Fry explained the sale of G. S. cookies.

TROOP 3 Girl Scouts of troop 3 met in the First Christian church Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. The meeting opened with songs, followed by inspection.

The Red Breast patrol won the inspection. Ellen Waite made reports in the book of reports and records.

The Friendship Circle was formed and the meeting was closed by singing the good luck song.

Scribe, Gerry C. Ge.

Titan Squad Tallest In Metro Tournament

Stan Wasik Is Loftiest Cager In Tourney; Stands 6 Feet 4 Inches

NINE PLAYERS ABOVE SIX FEET

With nine players on the roster towering above the six-foot mark, Westminster college ranks as the tallest squad entered in the coming Metropolitan cage tournament billed for Madison Square Garden.

Stan Wasik, nimble center, heads the skyscraper section at six feet four. Manhattan scribes, evidently haven't even heard about Stan. For in yesterday's P.M., a daily "Sport" Harman, university giant, was credited with being the loftiest player booked to participate in the event. Harman stands 6 feet 3 inches, an inch shorter than the local pride.

Dunnire-Miller Loftiest Harman doesn't even rank second in the scramble for the height honors. In addition to Wasik, the local Pennsy collegiate court kings have Dale Dunnire, sophomore sensation, at 6 feet 3. The Titans can even dig into their reserve crips and come up with James Bennett at 6 feet 3. Fred Miller, who filled in capably during the absence of "Buzz" Ridd, is 6 feet 3.

According to reports emanating from the Gay White Way, the majority of the players in the Metro roundup are less than six feet tall. On that basis, Westminster will present the tallest starting lineup in the tourney.

Headed by Wasik, Dale Dunnire follows at 6 feet 3; Charles "Buzz" Ridd, offensive spearhead, and Joe Spak, ball and chain guard, sit the six-foot mark on the nose. Leland Fox, a "dead-eye-dick," is the shortest of the Titan varsity at 5 feet 11. All told, the Titans' starting team averages 6 feet 1 inch.

The remaining members of the six-foot-or-more club are substitutes.

The Titan's height advantage may play an important hand in the outcome of Wednesday's titanic struggle.

With the exception of Dale Dunnire, the same lineup that dropped a 47-42 decision to Long Island during the 1940 season will start against the Blackbirds.

In losing to the Bee-coached machine, Coach Washabaugh's starting lineup included "Buzz" Ridd, Fred Miller, Lee Fox, Stan Wasik and Joe Spak. Dunnire is on the starting lineup while Miller is No. 1 reserve man.

Fully acquainted with Long Island's basketball maneuvers, as a result of the '40 tussle, the Pennsy champions are training diligently, hoping to uncover an attack that will stymie the vaunted Blackbird offense.

Westminster leaves early Sunday morning for New York, arriving tomorrow night at 6:10 o'clock. The Titan party will be quartered in the Piccadilly hotel.

MT. JACKSON TROOP DEFEATS MORAVIANS

The Mt. Jackson Scout Troop 1 basketball team defeated the Moravians last night at the Mt. Jackson high floor 35 to 18, with Fox and Kallas best for the Scouts and Razzano best for the losers. At the half the Scouts led 12 to 11.

New Castle Rifle Club Wins Match

The New Castle rifle club won a Penn-Ohio league match here last night from the Columbiana club 953 to 917. High for the match were Jesse Moore and McGinnis both of the New Castle team with 193's.

The results: New Castle, J. Moore 193, McGinnis 193, Mowry 192, Finley 191, Hookberry 189—Total 958. Other New Castle strings: Johns 185, J. Williams 189, Betty Ward 163, Hammond 174, Milnes 189, Schweinsberg 187, W. Bowers 182, Watson 188, G. Williams 178.

Columbiana: Harrold 184, Printz 181, M. Moore 184, Petrich 184, Dows 184—Total, 917. Other Columbiana strings: Merriott 180, Miller 178, Mason 178, J. Ward 130, Latuk 167.

Monday night Eau Claire will come to New Castle for an Interstate match at the Cathedral.

Angel, Savoldi In Return Bout

Savoldi Receives Chance To Even Score With Unde-feated Angel

The Angel, perhaps the world's most exploited wrestler and Joe Savoldi, a renowned performer in two sports, football and wrestling, are scheduled to meet in the Arena, Monday night, in a 10-round grapple. Each round is docked for six minutes. It will be their second meeting. The Angel having captured the first set, Australian rules will prevail. The Jefferson Athletic club is promoting the show which will contain three bouts.

Bibber McCoy, formerly of Holy Cross, who was considerably resentful because Referee Tex Mayhew disqualified him for not hearing the sixth round bell when he met Savoldi last Monday will meet the Superman or the "Man Masked in Blue". And to further bolster the card, King Kong Kashey, one of the best wrestlers now a-traveling will take on some opponent to be named tonight.

Catch-As-Catch-Can Style All of the wrestlers are heavyweights and everyone of them has appeared here previously. Savoldi got his return chance against The Angel because the winner of the McCoy-Savoldi match was promised a shot at the undefeated Angel will not be known until they come to grips, catch-as-catch-can fashion in the feature exhibition Monday.

The Angel and Lord Mills "played" to a crowded house when wrestling was resumed in this city. In fact, it was necessary to turn fans away. No doubt there'll be hundreds who sorry they failed to see The Angel in the first show will watch him gambol on the mat Monday.

Reservations are being made by fans of Butler, Sharon, Farrell, Beaver Falls and outlying sections of Lawrence County.

St. Michaels Win From Campbell

The St. Michaels church team champions of the Slovak league at Youngstown played a non-league game last night at the Youngstown gym with the St. Lucy five of Campbell and won 45 to 19.

Joey Danish, Andy Chabak and Johnnie "Rookie" Carik were the standout stars for the locals. Best for the losers was Armaline and Modak.

The summary: St. Michaels: Carik, f. 4 0 8; Chabak, f. 4 1 9; Kozela, f. 6 1 13; Budal, c. 1 0 2; Balla, c. 1 0 2; Danish, g. 5 1 11; Duzganski, g. 0 0 0.

Totals: 21 3 45

Referee—Morrow.

Church Golfers To Meet Tuesday

Mont McGill, president of the New Castle Church Golf league has called the first meeting of the season for next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the McGill store on Grant street of the captains of the various teams in the church league. Plans for the coming summer league season will be up for discussion. Any person interested in the church golf league is invited to attend the meeting.

Westminster Squad 'Tuning Up'

NEW WILMINGTON, March 15.—The Westminster Titans are singing everything except the blues this week-end, getting ready for their invasion of Madison Square Garden, Wednesday night, March 19, when they meet the Long Island U. Blackbirds in the second-part of a double-header in the Metropolitan inter-collegiate tournament.

The Towering Titans are particularly happy in drawing Coach Clair Bee's Long Island quintet, since the Westminster lads feel sure they can trim the New Yorkers, who defeated them last year 42-37. The Titans lead the Bee-coached cagers last year for three quarters, but succumbed to a last five-minute long-range barrage of shots.

Titans To Leave For New York City Tourney On Sunday

(Special To The News) NEW WILMINGTON, March 15.—Following a week of regular practice-sessions, Coach Grover Washabaugh and his ten Westminster Titan cagers will leave for Madison Square Garden and the Metropolitan intercollegiate basketball competition, Sunday morning, March 16.

The Titans will arrive in Pittsburgh at 9:45, and leave from the Union depot there en route to New York city, possibly on the same train as Ned Irish, tournament manager, who speaks at the Duquesne University banquet for the Hilltop team, Saturday night.

Arriving in New York Sunday night, the Titans will be the tournament guests at a hockey game in the Gardens, and will begin working out Monday morning at 11 o'clock, possibly on the Garden floor.

During the entire stay in New York, the Westminster squad will be guests of the tournament, and whether the Titans win their Wednesday night game or not, they will probably stay over in New York until Monday, March 24, final day of the tourney. Coach Washabaugh will not return with the team, but will stay over for a coaches meeting in New York.

Coach Washabaugh was unwilling to make any statements on the Titans' chances to defeat Long Island, when the two quintets meet, Wednesday night, March 19. "The boys think they can take the Blackbirds, and their predictions are as good as mine, or better," the coach said.

Sport niblets tacked on to each other to make a column—

Fred Shaffer unwrapped his right arm flippers against the New York Yankees, Thursday afternoon in St. Petersburg, Florida. New Castle's Fred paraded to the knoll in the third and breezed the apple through impressively. The 25-year-old blond limited the powerful Manhattan club to a lone single during his three musing tenure. His control was exceptionally good. Fred's showing pleased Louisville bigwigs no end.

Several days ago, the A.P. unfolded its annual all-Pennsylvania collegiate five, Westminster, which copped the state coronet, and Duquesne, which finished second, failed to place a man on the mythical club. Charles "Buzz" Ridd, the Titan ace, and Moe Becker, Duquesne's spark pug, were given a spot on the second team, graces to a lone single during his three musing tenure. His control was exceptionally good. Fred's showing pleased Louisville bigwigs no end.

Pinch this and that:—According to Eddie Britz, Fritzie Zivic and Billy Conn have formed a $25,000 co. bin. The fistic champs will bet the whole sum that Billy beats Joe Louis this June—provided the odds are lucrative enough. . . . Frank Leahy, Notre Dame's new head coach, says that "Notre Dame will use a wide open brand of football". . . . Checkers are still popular in the U.S. One company sold more than 20,000,000 boards in 1940.

St. Vitus-Greeks League Leaders

Only Four Nights Of Basketball Left In New Castle Church League

The St. Vitus church team will be the Class AA champions in the New Castle Church Basketball league, having won nine straight games without a setback in the second half and were the first half champions. The St. George Greek team is well on its way to the Class A championship, having won the first half and need but one more win in their next two games to cop the second half.

The Central Christians are the only stumbling blocks in the path of the Hellenic warriors, both the Christians and Greeks have two games left to play—the Greeks will meet St. Vitus and Mahoning Methodists while the Christians must face the Second U. P. and St. Mary's teams. The "Manny" Outfitters coached Greeks have won six and lost three, while the Christians have won five and lost four. Mahoning, with four wins and five defeats, still has an outside chance of the two above teams drop both of their games and Mahoning wins their two.

Monday Games The teams will resume play Monday night with the following games on the menu—Second U. P. vs. Central Christians, Croton vs. Mahoning, St. Marys vs. Central Presbyterians.

Following is the standing of the league to date: St. Vitus AA 9 0 1000; Epworth AA 8 1 889; Second U. P. AA 7 2 778; St. George AA 6 3 667; First Baptist AA 5 4 556; Central Christian AA 5 4 555; First Presby. AA 5 4 555; Mahoning AA 4 5 444; St. Mary's AA 2 7 222; Croton AA 2 7 222; Gen. Presbyterian AA 1 8 111; First Methodist AA 0 9 000.

Sansovino, sire of the thoroughbred stallion Jacopo, was unbeaten as a 2-year-old. He was victorious in the Ham Produce Stakes at Goodwood and the Glimcrack Plate at York, in England.

Babe Barna, former West Virginia football star, will play in the Minneapolis outfield next season along with Ab Wright and Hub Walker. The Millers bought Barna from Memphis where he batted .308.

Elbie Fletcher's right knee ailment is adding to Frankie Frisch's woes. The star first sacker underwent an operation several months ago. Elbie is still limping. The St. Louis Cardinal deserve a flock of salutes for continuing to take care of "Bill" Delancey, their ailing catcher. "Bill" has been named manager of Pocatello. Enos Slaughter, Cardinal hard hitter, has been in the majors three years. He has struck out 126 times. He has received a similar number of bases on balls.

Pinch this and that:—According to Eddie Britz, Fritzie Zivic and Billy Conn have formed a $25,000 co. bin. The fistic champs will bet the whole sum that Billy beats Joe Louis this June—provided the odds are lucrative enough. . . . Frank Leahy, Notre Dame's new head coach, says that "Notre Dame will use a wide open brand of football". . . . Checkers are still popular in the U.S. One company sold more than 20,000,000 boards in 1940.

OUT—Hal Wagner, Philadelphia Athletics' catcher, cuts off a score at the plate during a training game with Portland at Anaheim, Cal.

New York Yankees Will Try Comeback

Have New Young Infielders Rizzuto And Priddy, Along With Joe Gordon And Rolfe

Pitching Staff Question As Veterans Falter, Dickey Still Good Catcher

By LAWTON CARVER

(International Service Staff) ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 15.—A re-arranged infield and possible changes elsewhere will make the New York Yankees the most strikingly rebuilt team in the American League during the coming season, but Manager Joe McCarthy reiterates that the Yankees will regain the pennant. With that he establishes the erstwhile champions as virtually unanimous favorites or co-favorites to detrone the Detroit Tigers, and at the same time he astounds everybody within hearing.

One of the least informative of all the baseball people and an ultra-conservative in expressing an opinion, he wouldn't give you the time of day without double-checking three watches, if he gave it to you at all. Hailed by some as a baseball genius and lightly teased aside by others as a phenomenally lucky manager, McCarthy finally has cracked and made a statement.

Must Beat Indians There it is, the Yankees to win—and everybody picking them out-right or bracketing them along with the Cleveland Indians or the Tigers.

For one thing the strata of maintaining a four-year championship pace has been broken and his club figures to bounce back hard, after finishing only two games out of the lead last season in the midst of a crackup. His pitching prospects are reasonably good. His hitting should improve over last season's miserable performance, which ended with the Yanks in eighth place as batters.

However, it is the infield that is likely to make or break the Yankees this season. Babe Daligren, best fielding first baseman in baseball has been sold to the Boston Bees and Shortstop Frankie Crosetti, still one of the best fielders of his position in the game, probably will be benched. Neither could hit with sufficient vigor.

The result will be a second baseman, Joe Gordon, playing first and a kid combination from the Yankees' Kansas City farm, Gerald Priddy and Phil Rizzuto at second and short, that is if Rizzuto doesn't wind up in the army. Phil has received his notice from the army, and will claim no exemptions. Red Rolfe who slumped with the rest last season, will be at third.

Infield Uncertain If Rizzuto is snatched to the colors, Crosetti may be reestablished at short, or Gordon may be moved to short—a position which he played in the minors—and Johnny Sturm, first baseman brought up from Kansas City, may be placed on first.

In other words, the Yankees are far from set in the infield, and that is where they may win and lose the pennant. It is significant that they won their other pennants with defensively flawless infields combined with power.

Joe DiMaggio, who hit .352 last season in defiance of the Yankee crackup, owns centered outfield for as long as he can walk. He held out briefly, then signed last week and, barring accidents, will start the season on opening day for the first time since he came up in 1936. Injuries and a long holdout have delayed him in the past.

Tommy Holmes, who hit .317 for Newark, may be the left fielder and Charlie Keller the right fielder, but Tommy Henrich and George Selkirk are still in there punching.

Good Catching Bill Dickey, who was ailing last year, and Buddy Roser, assume the Yankees outfield next season along with Red Ruffing, a 35-year winner, who now is only a few years removed from prominence in a rocking chair. Ernie Bonham, who was called in late last season and proceeded to win nine games against three defeats: Maris, Russo, Atley Donald, a star of 1939 who slumped last season, George Washburn, and Norman Branch, from Newark, Charles Coleman and Don Herdickson from Kansas City; Rinalde Ardiola from the coast league with Marvin Bremer, Spurgeon Cleider, John Murphy and even Lefty Gomez still on the premises.

The Collegians will have on their roster such well-known stars as Tom Carey, Jimmy Dart, Chink Duxin and "Fuzzy" Eagleson, of the Slippery Rock team, Newton and Washabaugh, of the Westminster team, and in addition will have the well-known "Bus" Strausbaugh, one of the best independent players in New Castle.

Coach Mike Kulich will have on the Western team Johnny "Rookie" Carik, Alec Robuck, Jim Gottuso, Nick Gennock, Samsy Bullano, Peitzy Zingaro, Johnny Cabes, Harry Hordig, Al Bucci, Alec Farou and others.

Committee Pleased At nine o'clock the third game of the evening will be played, with the K. Pulaski Reserves battling Princeton in a class B game. This game will end the first round of play in class B.

The tourney committee is well pleased by the response shown the first week. Quite a nice sum has already been banked by the treasurer, Sid Lookley. The New Castle Music Council gets the entire proceeds of the tourney.

Fine Tourney Games Monday

Gersons-Gus' Collegians Will Play Class A Feature Game Monday Evening

The fourth annual city-county basketball tournament will resume play Monday night at the George Washington high floor, with three last games being booked. The first game in class B will start at seven o'clock with the "Bens" colored team, battling the Greens in a second-round engagement.

The main game at eight o'clock will show the Gerson quintet against the Gus Collegians in a first-round class A battle. This game will, no doubt, be one of the best of the tourney to date, and it is expected that quite a large crowd will follow the two teams to the tourney floor.

Galaxy of Stars The Collegians will have on their roster such well-known stars as Tom Carey, Jimmy Dart, Chink Duxin and "Fuzzy" Eagleson, of the Slippery Rock team, Newton and Washabaugh, of the Westminster team, and in addition will have the well-known "Bus" Strausbaugh, one of the best independent players in New Castle.

Coach Mike Kulich will have on the Western team Johnny "Rookie" Carik, Alec Robuck, Jim Gottuso, Nick Gennock, Samsy Bullano, Peitzy Zingaro, Johnny Cabes, Harry Hordig, Al Bucci, Alec Farou and others.

Ellwood Tax Rate Sunday Services In To Remain Same Churches Of Ellwood

Council Fixes Rate At 7 1/2 Mills At Special Meeting Last Night

OTHER MATTERS BEFORE COUNCIL

ELLWOOD CITY, March 15.—The 1941 boro tax will remain at the current rate of 7 1/2 mills for the present year, according to an ordinance adopted by the boro council, which convened last night in special session at the city building.

The tax was discussed at 7 mills for the general fund and 1/2 mill for debt service. Councilman Robert Curry objected to the ordinance and said that the tax could be reduced one mill. "What are you going to do with all that money? What's the use of hoarding? I'm sticking up for the taxpayers who have paid too much money too long," he declared. Lantz said "somebody is only trying to get a feather in their hat" and with that the discussion ended.

The budget was adopted for 1941 with total estimated expenditures being $246,407, and total estimated receipts being $248,675. Anticipated street improvements, which are now 100 per cent assessable to abutting property owners, were not included in the budget and will be temporarily financed until the payments begin to come in. Items not included in the budget and which will very likely not be realized in 1941 included: Police and radio cars, fire truck, sewage plant, municipal garage, curb repairs, California avenue storm sewer, resurfacing Sixth street, Crescent avenue and Chestnut way, Sixth street storm drain and recreation dam. It was pointed out by boro manager, Lowell W. Monroe, that there is an unappropriated balance of $12,267, which might and possibly will be used for the purchase of a fire truck or one of the other above mentioned improvements. After the adoption of the budget, members verbally went on record to keep within the budget during the year, which somewhat excludes the possibility of many new improvements.

Council agreed to send letters protesting a bill to be offered in the House of Representatives by Feuber Nagel by which a boro could not annex any part of a township without the consent of the entire township.

It was agreed to purchase a camera and equipment for the police department at a cost of about $200.

A motion that $10,000 be transferred from the sinking to the electric fund was passed, as was a motion to transfer $100,000 from the electric to the general fund.

Bids for a one-half ton pick-up truck for the electric department was awarded to the J. R. Rick company, New Castle, at a bid of $517. Curry objected to the awarding of the bid because it did not go to the lowest bidder.

Two caretakers for Ewing Park to begin services on April 1, were elected and will be paid $100 per month. Those chosen were Tony Lasso and Charles J. Watterson. Tony Turner was nominated by Curry but did not receive enough votes.

A communication was received from the health engineering department that the boro must take definite steps to have plans made for the remodeling of the sewage disposal plant.

The session was delayed an hour and one-half in starting because one member, J. C. Boyd, had not received his notice of the meeting until Friday afternoon and challenged the legality of the session. Boro Solicitor J. W. Humphrey pointed out that the by-laws require notice to be given 24 hours in advance and the letters having been postmarked that much time in advance, the fault was with the post office delivery service and not with the boro secretary. Boyd was attending a dinner at the U. P. church and was notified that the meeting would be held before the session started. A motion was passed that in the future the boro secretary would deliver the meeting notice to all members at their home addresses.

After the luncheon the group gathered at the Seidel home for an afternoon of cards, and the high score holders were Mrs. W. R. Thompson and Mrs. J. J. Dunn.

For the next meeting, on Friday, April 10, Mrs. Daisy Hieber will entertain at the Broadhead hotel, Beaver Falls.

CHURCH OF GOD

MISSION SOCIETY

ELLWOOD CITY, March 15.—Members of the Women's Missionary society of the First Church of God gathered last evening at the home of Mrs. Margaret Rabberman, of the Wampum road.

"Be Still And Know That I Am God" was the theme presented by Mrs. John King. Plans were made to buy copies of the book, "Poisoned Pillars" with the sale benefits to go to a girls school in Africa.

Another meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Wilson, Clover avenue.

MRS. JAMES HOY HAS CLUB MEETING

ELLWOOD CITY, March 15.—For the bi-weekly session members of the three C. club were received last evening at the home of Mrs. James Hoy, Line avenue.

Bridge engaged the attention of the group, with the first place awards going to Mrs. Walter Piper, Mrs. Arthur Miller and Mrs. Scott Anderson. Miss Lulu Daubenspeck and Mrs. Hayden assisted in serving a tempting luncheon.

For the next meeting, on Friday, April 11, Mrs. Arthur Miller, North Sewickley, will be hostess.

North Sewickley Grange Observes 28th Anniversary

ELLWOOD CITY, March 15.—The twenty-eighth anniversary of the North Sewickley township grange was celebrated in a festive manner last evening with a dinner at the hall, on the New Brighton road.

Seventy-five members and guests attended and partook of a delectable dinner served at nicely appointed tables by Mrs. David Douglas and Mrs. Henry McGraw. Pomona Master and Mrs. Joseph McCarthy were special guests and during the evening the former presented a 25-year silver service star to Mrs. Edward Briloch.

Under the direction of Mrs. Thelma Brown, a literary program of readings, songs and contests, and a playlet, all of a humorous type were presented by various members and proved to be most entertaining.

Ellwood W. C. T. U. Has Fine Program

ELLWOOD CITY, March 15.—"Medical Temperance and Pitfalls" was the theme of an interesting meeting held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. C. Barnhart, of Franklin avenue.

Mrs. J. P. Peterson was the leader of the program which began with a short playlet, "How Much Is Moderate?" by Dale Warnock. Janet Patterson and Paul Burrows and was followed by "Organ Exercise" by Mrs. Oscar McQuiston, "Alcohol And Pneumonia" by Mrs. J. P. Moyer, "Cigarettes And Save Our Youth" by Miss Carrie Reinheimer, and "Patent Medicine" by Mrs. Olive Rhea.

Mrs. J. P. Moyer conducted the meeting and read a letter from Senator Louis Graham concerning a recent petition sent by the Union. It was agreed to send a sum of money to the Anti-Saloon League.

Before the hostess served a tempting lunch being assisted by Mrs. Anna Wilson and Mrs. Ed Christie, the program concluded with a piano solo by Janet Patterson.

Because of Good Friday the April meeting was advanced until the third Friday and will be held at the home of Mrs. William Snowden, of Poch street, Ewing Park.

Mrs. J. E. Powell Pleasing Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, March 15.—Mrs. J. E. Powell hospitably entertained members of the A. M. L. club at her home in Second street last evening. Special guests were Mrs. George Dambach, Mrs. E. B. Yahn, Mrs. Harry Stillwagon and Mrs. Willis Rhodes, who has just returned from a trip to Florida.

Contract was enjoyed at three tables with the prize going to Mrs. Howard Wilson and Mrs. Loren Springer for members and the guest award to Mrs. Dambach. Mrs. Rhodes aided in serving a dainty lunch.

On Friday, March 28, the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. C. Steinberger, Wayne avenue.

Church Officers Entertain Group

ELLWOOD CITY, March 15.—Officers of the United Presbyterian church pleasantly entertained the choir, ushers, their husbands and wives at a delightful dinner last evening in the church dining room.

With covers arranged for eighty-four, a most delicious dinner was served by women of the church at attractively arranged tables.

The program featured an amusing play by members of the Hannah P. McDonald class, and an interesting description of motion pictures of a trip to Mexico and Texas by Mr. Marvin of New Castle.

An election of officers was held and resulted: President, June Smith; vice president, Freda Householder; secretary Betty Jane Steffler; treasurer, Dorothy Jenkins; assistant secretary, Virginia Hazen, and assistant treasurer, Jessie May Wilcox.

Four new members, Helen Hazen, Lois Brewer, Anna May Hausenfeld, and Janice Smith, were welcomed.

After a period of games, the hostess was aided in serving a tempting lunch by Mrs. Jenkins.

Sankey W. C. T. U. At Jennings Home

Mrs. Charles Hauserman conducted the program with all members taking part in the discussion.

Another meeting will be held on Friday, April 11, with Mrs. Herman Parsons to be the leader.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

AT STEVENSON HOME

ELLWOOD CITY, March 15.—At the home of Mrs. Charles Stevenson, Ninth street, members of the Duplicate Contract club were agreeably entertained on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Helen Bowater and Mrs. Julia Croft were special guests with the favor going to Mrs. Croft. Mrs. W. F. Kegel was given the attractive first place prize. Mrs. Stevenson served a tempting lunch.

Ellwood Sportsmen Planning Fish Fry

Rod And Gun Club Plans For Annual Event On Friday Night, March 21

Down Ellwood City way there are several days in the year that come in for special attention. New Years, Christmas, Fourth of July and the day of the Annual Fish Fry of the Rod and Gun Club are on the list. The boys make resolutions another they give presents, and on the Fourth they go on picnics, but on the night of the annual Fish Fry they fill themselves full of fish and oratory.

This year the annual gorging comes on March 21, which in the southern end of the county falls on Friday night of next week. Fishing companies right now from Penobscot to Put-in-Bay are working overtime getting enough fish to supply the demand on the night of the 21st and such treacherers of Ellwood City as Denny Schill and Charles Ross are in spring training for the affair.

Sportsmen from all over the county attend. Its one affair tickets don't have to be sold for, they sell themselves. Not everybody gets invited to an Ellwood Rod and Gun Club Fish Fry and those who do make sure they get there by plane, subway, dog team or carrier pigeon.

Nicholas Castle of New Castle is the speaker of the evening and after inhaling all the fish they can use the boys will settle back loosen their belts and listen to Nick tell about the one that got away up in Alaska.

The Fish Fry will be held in the Elks Club March 21 starting at six-thirty o'clock.

Four To Five Hundred Voices To Be Heard In Geneva Event

(Special To The News)

BEAVER FALLS, March 15.—The music lovers of Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio are to have the rare opportunity of enjoying a choral festival of some 400 or 500 voices the night of March 22 consisting of the choruses of the following liberal arts colleges: Geneva, Westminster, Washington and Jefferson, Thiel, Grove City, Seton Hill, Mount Mercy, and Pennsylvania College for Women.

A year ago the Association of Liberal Arts Colleges of Western Pennsylvania sponsored such a choral festival at Grove City for the first time in its history. The undertaking proved such a success that it was unanimously decided to make it an annual affair with Geneva College as the host for this year.

Karl V. Gilbert, head of the music department at Geneva, was chosen chairman of the committee in charge of the festival. He will direct the combined chorus in the evening concert. Individual school rehearsals will be held every half hour from 1:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon.

The Beaver Falls High School auditorium has been secured for the event and will be available for use both afternoon and evening. In the program for the evening, which is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock, there will be four mixed choruses, three women's choirs, and one male chorus.

Press Reporter Held In Berlin

(International News Service)

BERLIN, March 15.—Richard C. Hottelet, member of the United Press Berlin bureau staff, was arrested today "under urgent suspicion" of espionage on behalf of an enemy power, according to the official German news agency DNB.

Hottelet, 23 years old, is an American citizen from Brooklyn, N. Y. He was a student in Berlin before joining the United Press Berlin staff several years ago.

It was stated officially Hottelet's arrest was not connected with his journalistic work or with the United Press but concerned only alleged personal and private matters.

Official sources also denied that the arrest was carried out in retaliation for legal action in the United States against the German trans- ocean news agency.

MISSION STUDY

CLASSES ENDED

ELLWOOD CITY, March 15.—The sixth and final mission study class was held by the Y. P. C. U. society of the Wurtemburg U. P. church last evening at the parsonage.

Review of the book "Stand By For China" was concluded by Rev. J. E. Caushey with parts being taken by Frances Hazen, Robert Taylor and Jack Furey.

A diverting hour of games was enjoyed after which Mrs. Caushey served appetizing refreshments.

ELLWOOD PERSONALS
Mr. and Mrs. William Moran have moved to their new home at Knox. Mrs. Elsie Hall is still confined to her home at Lillyville, suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

Clarence Yahn, Jr., who is employed at Baltimore, Md., arrived home this morning to spend the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Yahn, of the Zelienople road.

Mrs. E. B. Yahn and Mrs. Dorothy Barlow, this city, attended a Women's club Federation meeting held on Friday at the home of Mrs. Harry Gornley, New Castle. Mrs. Yahn is president of the local Senior club.

On Thursday, Mrs. Barlow, Mrs. J. A. Gonnell and Mrs. George Moyer attended a meeting of the legislative committee of the Federation at the home of Mrs. S. D. Pearson, New Castle.

Miss Iva Jackson and Mrs. L. C. Barnhart, of Franklin avenue, are spending the week end with relatives in Butler county.

Girl Scouting Offers Means Of Aiding In U. S. Defense Program

Girl scouting offers women a direct and effective means for making their contribution to the nation's defense program, according to Mrs. C. M. England, commissioner of the New Castle Girl Scout Council.

"Everyone knows how much importance the totalitarian countries attach to their youth organizations," Mrs. England said. "In Scouting we have a democratic youth movement in which the girls who will be tomorrow's citizens are learning and using the methods of democracy in their troop activities."

Mrs. England pointed out that Girl Scouting has been educating girls for democratic citizenship for twenty-nine years. The organization was founded in the United States on March 12, 1912 by Juliette Low. Local Girl Scouts are celebrating their fourteenth anniversary as an organized council this year.

Reports from Great Britain show that one of the greatest assets of the Girl Guides in helping their country in its present emergency has been their ability to work together. Mrs. England continued, "Girl Scouts—like their sister guides abroad—are trained to work together as individuals. This is exactly opposite to the totalitarian concept of youth organizations, for they insist that individuals submerge themselves in the group and consider themselves only in relation to the group."

In addition to maintaining and expanding the Girl Scout training ground for tomorrow's citizens," Mrs. England said, "Girl Scouting makes many positive contributions to the nation's immediate defense needs. The nation-wide membership in the Girl Scouts totals over half a million girls between seven and eighteen years old. The guiding of this large group, trained to democratic methods, in first aid, health care, conservation, community service and similar activities, opens endless opportunities to women who wish to help their country now and insure the future of democracy in the United States."

The more opportunity to help young girls with their problem of growing up in a world full of unknown quantities, alone, is a challenge to women," she added. "Girl Scouting helps them develop normal, healthy interests in spite of the times and directs their energy to worthwhile activities."

"Last but not least, adults in Girl Scouting are not merely willing workers," she said. "They are given special training in group leadership and related techniques. Local training courses and those provided in the national Girl Scout training schools equip women for the leadership of girls, and incidentally, for many other types of leadership which we women may be called upon to assume."

President Orders Probe Of Arrest Of Correspondent

U. S. Embassy In Berlin To Investigate Reported Arrest Of Press Man

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 15.—President Roosevelt today instructed the State Department to make a full investigation of the reported arrest of an American foreign correspondent in Berlin, charged with suspicion of espionage in behalf of a foreign power.

Presidential Secretary Stephen E. Early said that all available details of the arrest have been placed before the President, and that, acting on instructions, Early had relayed Mr. Roosevelt's request for an immediate investigation to the Department of State.

POULTRY INFORMATION AVAILABLE

The growing of healthy pullets is one of the chief concerns of poultry raisers.

In order to aid in the development of pullets, there will be available through the agricultural extension service a series of letters offering timely suggestions on the growing and developing of the poultry flock.

This information will be sent to poultry raisers requesting it. Those interested in receiving this information should make their request to the Agricultural Extension Office, 216 Post Office building, New Castle, or mail this form:

VITAMINS REQUIRED FOR CALFEEDING

According to present knowledge, A and D are the only vitamins possibly deficient in the calf's ration.

Vitamin A is essential in growth and in resistance to disease. Carotene, one of the pigments of plants high in vitamin A, is closely associated with the green coloring matter in forage crops, pasture and also the green coloring matter in cured roughage. Among grains, yellow corn is a fair source of vitamin A.

Feeding experiments conducted at the government experiment station, Beltsville, Md., showed that cows fed for extended periods on a ration deficient in vitamin A gave birth to weak, dead, or immature calves. The experiments also showed that the vitamin A content of milk produced by cows on such rations was greatly reduced and that calves fed milk from such cows would soon die if they were fed a poor grade of hay low in vitamin A.

Vitamin D aids in assimilation of calcium or lime. Sun-curing of hay increases its vitamin D content tremendously. The direct rays of the sun on the calf also assist in the assimilation of calcium.

Experimental work done at the Pennsylvania State college showed that the lack of vitamin D in the calf's ration caused a decreased growth rate, abnormal bone development, humped back, swollen joints, bowed legs and stiffness. This work also showed that artificially cured hay was low in vitamin D while sun-cured hay was high in this particular vitamin.

While yellow corn is a good source of vitamin A, yet sun-cured hay of good quality is perhaps the most dependable source of vitamin D for winter feeding.

If a dairyman keeps his calves where they can be turned out for exercise in direct sunlight, and if the calves are turned out to pasture in the summer, or receive sun-cured hay that has retained a good deal of its green coloring matter and are fed a grain mixture that contains yellow corn, an abundance of vitamins A and D will be supplied.

When feeding conditions are not so good or if any of the aforementioned symptoms are observed, both the Beltsville and Pennsylvania experiments showed that the feeding of about a tablespoon of cod liver oil daily would correct these conditions and would supply sufficient vitamins A and D for good growth and development.

Since sun-cured hay that has retained its bright green color usually is high in the necessary vitamins for the best growth and development, it is advisable for dairyman to feed it to young stock.

GROWING CHICKS NEED COMFORTABLE QUARTERS

Satisfactory brooding quarters assure comfort for growing chicks if good brooding management is practiced. The broom or building used needs a sound roof, a tight floor, and light sides to prevent drafts.

A properly constructed concrete floor is warmer, easier to clean, and more durable for a stationary, permanent type of brooding and rearing building.

A single boarded floor for the portable brooder house may be quite ample when the "warm house" kind of brooding equipment is used.

A double wood floor with waterproof paper laid on the subfloor and builder's felt properly spaced between flooring will give an insulated type of floor that helps maintain a drier litter. Such a floor is probably desirable when electric brooders are used.

Some kind of workable ventilation should be provided. Brooder houses like laying houses, can be satisfactorily ventilated by means of windows and a ventilation "slot." This slot should be placed at the top-most part of the house front and may serve both as an inlet and outlet when windows are kept closed.

Such an opening is reduced in size and air flow regulated by a hinged board the size of the opening.

Windows serve best for ventilating purposes if they slide like the windows of a dwelling. Two half-sash windows are ample for this purpose and to provide light for the average 10 by 12 foot brooder house.

Often brooder houses are used as roosting houses after the chicks are old enough to do without heat. Hot weather comfort calls for additional ventilation. This may be provided by a window in the rear of the house to provide cross ventilation or by floor and ceiling ventilators in the rear. Such ventilators are also hinged for easy handling.

When such openings are loosely closed in winter and offer a chance for drafts, it is best to cover them with a tough waterproof paper that also will be wind proof. A piece of terra cotta tile in the roof makes an excellent outlet for the stovepipe and aids in fire prevention.

Chick doors should be placed at both sides of the house front to allow chicks more ready access to outdoors in good weather and to prevent piling up around the doors when they want to return to the house quickly because of sudden fright or storms. Some satisfactory roosting arrangement might also be a part of the permanent equipment of the brooder house or rearing quarters used.

GROW GARDEN GREENS FOR YEAR'S SUPPLY

Several small plantings from April to August will supply the family with greens for 12 months.

Leaf lettuce, asparagus, cabbage, Swiss chard, beet tops, New Zealand spinach, endive, and kale are important crops to grow for use as greens.

Dandelion may be grown in a corner of the garden and covered with a glass or muslin frame this month for an earlier, cleaner, and better supply than when harvested in competition with lawn grass.

Chieftain Savoy cabbage is a worthy addition on account of its tender, crisp, green leaves and excellent flavor.

Kale may be seeded in June or July and harvested all winter.

Three plantings of cabbage made in April, May and June should produce enough to use fresh, three bushels to store, and 20 quarts of sauerkraut.

GOOD DESIGN ESSENTIAL FOR MATURE FIGURE

There's no need for the mature woman to lament over not finding attractive and becoming dresses. Designers are creating smart clothes for the mature woman who wants wearables as well as beautiful garments.

The matron's dresses must first of all have good lines, smooth clean cut lines which flatter the figure, remarks Miss Julia Markle, home economics extension representative of Lawrence county.

Simplicity is the keynote of good design for the mature figure. There should be no choppy, fussy divisions of blouse or skirt.

Soft detail at the neck and shoulders play up the center of interest, which is the face. Moderate fullness in the form of tiny tucks or shirring, add interest without adding bulk, says Miss Markle. Lingerie touches, such as narrow pleating, bias folds, or washable collar and cuffs, also increase interest.

Soft collars near the face enhance the complexion, and she suggests cream, soft blue, rose, beige, or a transparent white as suitable selections. We find these colors in sheer blouses, yokes or collars on dark dresses.

Favorite costumes for the mature woman are the ensemble and the shirt-waist dress. The ensemble may be of the redingote type with separate dress and long coat, or dress and short jacket style.

The shirt-waist dress takes on the new softness this spring. The square straight shoulders and severely tailored look are giving way to more sloping shoulders and softer lines. The new shoulder pads are less thick and they extend up into the shoulders and less out into the sleeves.

Prints are popular and there's a variety of ways to handle them. We should be careful in selecting prints, for they must flatter the figure and person instead of speak too loudly on their own account. One of the colors in the print usually suggests accessories or accompanying coat.

Making Robes For Program At West

Pittsburg School

Girls At N. Y. A. Center Gain Experience By Actual Project Work

One of the most recent projects assigned to the Crawford-Oakridge N. Y. A. Girls Work Experience Center, Atlantic avenue, is making formal robes to be used in graduation exercises at the West Pittsburg school.

The girls will get the project under way within a short time, and will make the robes according to specifications supplied by the school. By working on projects of this type, the girls at the center gain such experience that may be of use to them in later life.

Material for the robes is supplied by the school and the girls provide the labor. The new power sewing machines will aid in making the robes as fine as though they were made by professional workers.

Expect Statement On Sanatorium Dispute By Shaw

(International News Service.)

HARRISBURG, March 15.—A statement on the Butler sanatorium dispute was expected to be issued today by State Secretary of Health John J. Shaw.

Gov. Arthur H. James had no comment to make on the attack of House Majority Leader Leo A. Achtermann because of its failure to open the tuberculosis hospital. Achtermann charged that the administration had no intention of opening the sanatorium, and quoted testimony by Dr. Shaw before the House appropriations committee as proof of his assertion.

"I have no comment whatever to make," said the governor. "I'll let Dr. Shaw reply to Achtermann's statement that we will not open Butler. He is far more familiar with it than I. Dr. Shaw will justify his attitude and the administration's."
